So they say lord for everything a reason
For every ending a new beginning
Oh so they say baby, for everything a reason
And so they say baby, for everything a reason

And those who loved before will be brought back together
Yeah those who loved before will be brought back together
And so they say baby, for everything a reason
And so they say baby you will be brought..

...brought back to me

I saw you leaving, I saw the light go out
I saw you leaving
I saw you leaving

And so they say lord, for everything a reason
My house is haunted by wrong desire
And on my skin left the scent of indignation
And so they say baby, for everything a reason

Don't call me back, I had everything I needed
For every lie, honey, the truth lay underneath it
Oh so they say baby, for everything a reason
And so they say baby, you will be brought...

...brought back to me

I saw you leaving, I saw the light go out
I saw you leaving
I saw you leaving

Come back to me
