Temptation

I just have to know right now
'Cause I don't wanna be the one
Who let you go, you go

My mouth burns up when I try to speak
There's something about you, makes me feel so weak
I can't seem to find what I came here for
You know we could be lovers but I just want more
My arms are open but you play with me
A sweet strip-tease

Temptation

I give up the fight
Tonight my body is an open mouth
Temptation

I just have to know right now
'Cause I don't wanna be the one
Who let you go

But you're stand there waiting for the blood to drain
Too long, waiting for a day that never breaks
Watching it pass like a speeding train
Hold me now or run, run, run

Temptation

I give up the fight
Tonight my body is an open mouth
Temptation

I just have to know right now
'Cause I don't wanna be the one
Who let you go, you go

I don't wanna be the one
Who let you go, you go
