Hey, what you're waiting for
You know I'll give you so much more
And don't you cheat yourself
It wasn't all that sweet and great
He didn't figure out
What pleasing you was all about
So hey, let me just recall
It's here you're gonna find it all

Ever since I'd felt the spell in these dreams
I used to yell
(You were right)
All the things you make me do
(The way you looked has made me smile)
At the age of twenty-two
Oh girl

And I'm gonna treat you right
I promise ever to be kind
Hey, don't you hesitate
Decide while it's not too late
He never realized
He didn't feed your appetite
So hey, how it's gonna be?
Well, is it him, or is it me?

Ever since I'd felt the spell in these dreams
I used to yell
(You were right)
All the things you make me do
(The way you looked has made me try)
At the age of twenty-two
Oh girl
