We demand a quiet and a dark
And a warm apartment
Clean covers, fresh water
Nice fragrances

If we don't get it
We'll find ourselves insane
Expect some hatred
Every now and then

You caught us naked
How in the hell you dared
We'd like to make it
Every now and then
We get a wild urge

No knocking, don't like it
No people uninvited
We know that it's violent
But it's okay

You chose us
You chose us
You chose us
