His sister taught him how to kiss
When he was 6 years old
He never quite achieved
These skills that he was taught
And now he's back for more
He's gonna get what he came for
And he just wants to reach
These heights that he dream't of

Die
He knows that we're all gonna die
His girlfriend taught him how to kiss
When he was 9 years old
She wouldn't even hide
Tremendous tricks from him
She would gently slip her
Moisty tongue into his mouth
And the she'd quickly lick
His upper lip off
