Well my heart is broke in pieces
And I just can't find the blues
Well my heart is broke in pieces
And I just can't find the blues
Well I fall apart so easy
When I'm so far away from you

The tears roll down my cheeks
And they cut me like a knife
Yes the tears roll down my cheeks
And they cut just like a knife
I been so blue, cold and empty
Baby since you walked, right out of my life

I spent a million lonely hours
Living in this world of pain
I count each minute and each hour
Living in this world of pain
Yes the time crawls by so slowly
And I'm about to go insane

Well my heart is broke in pieces
And I just can't find the blues
Well my heart is broke in pieces
And I just can't find the blues
Well I fall apart so easy
When I'm so far away from you

Well you know I fall apart so easy
When I'm far away from you
I fall apart so easy
When I'm far away from you
