Mhm mhm when you left I shed a million teardrops over you
But that's all over my crying days are through When you left my heart was cold and every day was blue
But that's all over I've found somebody new Someone that can make me happy make me wanna smile
Someone I'm gonna have around me for a long long while Someday we may meet again but I won't fall for you That's all over I've found somebody new mhm mhm

[instrument break]

Someone that can make me happy...
Yes that's all over I've found somebody new mhm mhm
