Heroes, larger than life
Up on the screen, every night
On the late show, oh, what a great show

Heroes, under the gun
Fighting for justice, for everyone
And we follow, where ever they go

Heroes, standing up tall
Taking their chances, risking it all
So you know, there'll always be heroes

Heroes, so good to know
So hard to find, sad, when they go
Like the shadows, on the high road

Heroes, ever on track
Never give up, never look back
Never lay low, oh, never grow old

Heroes, right from the start
They fall in love, straight from the heart
So you know they'll always be heroes

Ride on, safe from all danger
Where have you been for so long
I've been waiting for another star
To rise in my night again

Give me a reason
We all must carry on
Like all the heroes have done

Heroes, facing the fight
Calling for courage, trying to do right
When the dust blows, and the light goes

Heroes, tried and true
One for the other, ready to do
It tomorrow, like it was the last show

Heroes, put to the test

Keeping a promise, doing their best
So you know, there'll always be heroes

Ride on, safe from all danger
Where have you been for so long
I've been waiting for another star
To rise in my night again

Give me a reason
We all must carry on
Like all the heroes have done
Ride on, ride on
