

Johnny Duncan

"Thinking of a Rendezvous"

Visit "Thinking of a Rendezvous" on MotoLyrics.com

Thinking of a Rendezvous
Johnny Duncan & Janie Fricke

I said, hello, my it's been such a long time
You said, yes, it has, it's been a year or more
Then you smiled and asked about my wife and family
I said, Johnny's six and Judy's almost four.

But I was thinking how I'd love to get you alone for one hour
Down at the Family Inn like we used to do
We kept talking like nothing ever happened
But I was making small talk, thinking of a rendezvous.

You said, are you still working down at the factory
I said, yes I am, guess I'll be there til I die
You asked me if I still went down to Joe's Place
I said, ya, I do, but it's been a long, long time.

But I was thinking how I'd love to get you alone for one hour
Down at the Family Inn like we used to do
We kept talking like nothing ever happened
But I was making small talk, thinking of a rendezvous.

And you said, gotta go, sure been nice to see you
But I told Jack that I'd be home by nine
I said, by the way tell him I said, hello
And we'll all have to get together sometime.

But I was thinking how I'd love to get you alone for one hour
Down at the Family Inn like we used to do
We kept talking like nothing ever happened
But I was making small talk, thinking of a rendezvous...

Visit Johnny Duncan page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.