You look sweet as ever
Just how I picture you
Swear that you're lookin' better
And that's so hard to do, girl

Girl, I hope you don't mind
If I reminisce all the time
When I was your guy and you were my girl
There was nobody else in my world

Let's get the mood right
Turn on your heart light
Put on that old red dress
Baby, let's cruise

Baby, it's your night
Blow out the candlelight
We're going out tonight
Just me and you

Guess there ain't no denying
You just get better with time
You don't think I'm sincere
Let me make it perfectly clear, yeah

You still make me rise
With those sweet bedroom eyes
And how could I forget, how much I love the sex
And you're still the love of my life

Let's get the mood right
Turn on your heart light
Put on that old red dress
Baby, let's cruise

Baby, it's your night
Blow out the candlelight
We're going out tonight
Just me and you

When I think of our moments together
It just touches my heart

Don't you know it makes me wonder
How we could have fallen apart

Baby, I swear from this moment on
I will be there keeping it going on
For the rest of my life I'll be singing
"My, my, my, my, my"

Let's get the mood right
Turn on your heart light
Put on that old red dress
Baby, let's cruise

Baby, it's your night
Blow out the candlelight
We're going out tonight
Just me and you

Baby let's cruise
Let's just get in the mood
Baby let's cruise
