(Daniel Moore/Jerry Lynn Williams)

Crazy over you, crazy, crazy over you, crazy.

Lately, I just don't sleep at night, I can't seem to get no rest.

Always the same old story and the same old test.

Honey, please, believe me, believe me when I say.

There could never be a greater love for me, there can be no other way.

But now it's time to ask these really eyes.

I'm tired of all the stories and the lies

'Cause there ain't nothing that I would not do

'Cause I've gone crazy baby, I'm crazy over you.

Crazy over you, crazy, crazy over you, crazy.

Keep it nice and simple, make it easy as you can

Cause I want you to see, I need you with me, you just got to understand.

Baby, please, believe me, believe me when I say.

There can never be a greater lover for me, there can be no other way.

But now it's time to ask these really eyes.

I'm tired of all the stories and the lies

And there ain't nothing, nothing that I, nothing that I would not do

'Cause I've gone crazy baby, I'm crazy over you.

Crazy over you, crazy, crazy over you, crazy.

Oh you got to believe me, crazy over you, over you.
