Have faith in the one you love

Have faith in the one you love.

They tell me that time is a healer

They say it all comes to those who wait.
But I've been waiting such a long time

Now I'm reaching for your shore
Can't stay away no more.

You're my heartland
You're my heartland

You're my heartland
Don't let me be a stranger at your door.

Take a man afraid of falling
Take me any way that you can

Deep inside I hear you calling

Now I'm standing in the rain
Come shelter me again!

You're my heartland - have faith in the one you love

You're my heartland - have faith in the one you love

You're my heartland - have faith in the one you love

Don't let me be a stranger at your door.

Sooner or later I'll lay by your side

Spread your wings now
Darling
We can both fly.

Have faith in the one you love

Have faith in the one you love

Have faith in the one you love -

Don't let me be a stranger at your door.

You're my heartland - have faith in the one you love
