"Best Of Everything"

We've proven romance is still
The best of everything
That sudden thrill
The best of everything

That one little sigh
Is treasure you cannot die
Or measure by any test
The best of everything

You found the moon and the sand
Yes he's the one it seemed
But soon it's done
And not the one it seemed

You walked through the night
Just hoping it's still alright
You're hoping love can be all
Or nothing but even when it's nothing
It's still the best,
The best of everything

We've proven romance is still
The best of everything
