Come back, come back, come back, come back
Come back, come back to me
Nothing takes away the hurt
I feel in my heart
There's a way to stop my tales
Once they start
Only you can make my life
The way it used to be
And there's nothing I can do
Till you, till you come back to me

Oh, nothing takes away the hurt
When I think of you
Saying you'll be leaving me
For somebody new
But if you find he doesn't love you
Love you faithfully
I want you to know
You've got someplace to go
Come back, come back
Come back to me

Oh, if you find he doesn't love you
Love you faithfully
I want you to know
Come back, come back, come back, come back
Come back, come back to me
