Johnny Mathis
"Don't Take Away My Heaven"

Oh baby, I found heaven when I found you
And this heaven is something I don't wanna lose
I only know that if you ever said goodbye, I couldn't stand the pain
These eyes would cry, cry, cry like the rain

And the sun would have nowhere to shine
And the stars would all fall from the sky
Baby, please don't take away my heaven, oh no

'Cause this world would stop turnin', I know
And I'd lose my whole world if you go
Baby, please don't take away my heaven, oh, oh

Oh baby, I saw forever when I saw you
And if you left me, oh, I can't imagine what I'd do
Now that I've gone and built my world
Around your love, I couldn't let you go
Don't ever say goodbye, no, don't, don't, don't ever go

And the sun would have nowhere to shine
And the stars would all fall from the sky
Baby, please don't take away my heaven, oh no

'Cause this world would stop turnin', I know
And I'd lose my whole world if you go
Baby, please, oh, don't take away my heaven

'Cause you might as well take away my life from me
What good would a life without you be anyway

If you go away
The sun would have nowhere to shine
And the stars would all fall from the sky
Baby, please, oh, don't take away my heaven, oh no

'Cause this world would stop turnin', I know
And I'd lose my whole world if you go
Baby, please, oh, don't take away my heaven, oh, no

Don't take away my heaven, don't take away your love
Don't take away my life, oh baby, I need your touch

Baby, please don't take away my heaven, oh no

Don't take away my heaven, don't take away your love
Don't take away your love, oh baby, I need your touch
Baby, please, oh, don't take away my heaven, oh no

Don't take away my heaven, don't take away your love
Don't take away my life, oh baby, I need your touch
Baby, please, oh, don't take away my heaven, oh no
