There ain't no future in it, Evie
We never should begin it, Evie
Someone's already written a song for you
You're so right for me but I'm all wrong for you
If time was half a nice guy, Evie
We might have had a nice try, Evie, oh, Evie

But sometimes a single moment
Changes all the ones that follow
And though it's doomed and damned, and dying
Something in me won't stop trying
Evie, it's up to you

Sometimes a single moment
Changes all the ones that follow
And though it's doomed and damned, and dying
Something in me won't stop trying
Evie, it's up to you
