You've got me where you want me
And it's hope you're satisfied
Right boy got me where you want me
And you hardly even tried
A single look was all I took and starry eyed,
I watched my poor old heart go on that roller coaster
ride.
I say I won't surrender
But I know darn well I will
My hopes are pretty slender
And my chances almost nil;
Why should I try to alibi, when anyone can see,
You've got me where you want me and it's where I want to be.

(You got me where you want me
And I hope you're satisfied;
You got me where you want me
And you hardly even tried)
A single look was all I took and starry eyed,
I watched my poor old heart go on that roller coaster
ride.
I say I won't grow surrender,
But I know darn well I will (You're coming up empty in other words Jack your hopes are nil)
Why should I try to alibi, when anyone can see,
(It's the same old line your handed)
Nevertheless & not withstanding
You've got me where you want me and it's where I want to be.
