I have kissed her
Forgive me, baby, if I kissed her
It was a moment of weakness
When you were gone and I was lonely
And stars were shining much too bright
For in that moment of weakness
I went and kissed her last night

I hurt you
Forgive me, darling, if I hurt you
It was a moment of weakness
And yet my love for you grow stronger
For in that moment, dear, I knew
That while my lips kissed another
My heart was yearning for you

For in that moment of weakness
I went and kissed her last night
I'm sorry, I'm sorry if I kissed her
Forgive me, baby, if I hurt you I'm sorry, I'm sorry
