

Johnny Panic

"She Goes Again"

Visit "She Goes Again" on MotoLyrics.com

She caught a moment a weakness in my eye and in her landslide I was buried alive,
I couldn't walk, talk or even sleep, a frightened rabbit
in the headlight of her car.
Who am I? One of many it seems who stares at pictures and studies the tv screens, infatuation it rushes through your veins and like a cancer you'll never be the same.
And what she did to you she'll do to me.

She comes and she goes again. She comes and she goes again.
It's all she needs to get to you, it's all she needs to get to you.

I'm always waiting for my time to come, I'd be her victim if she had a loaded gun, one thought controls me it never leaves my side I've got to find her she has no place to hide.

I saw her last week on tv in Brazil then in Majorca I hope she's on the pill. Who is she? One of many it seems and I just need someone to bring me to my knees. And what she did to you she'll do to me.

She comes and she goes again. She comes and she
goes again.
It's all she needs to get to you, it's all she needs to
get to you.

Her rejection is nothing new to me I'm happy banking there's plenty fish in the sea.
All it takes is one face in the crowd and I'll be back singing this loud and proud.
And what she did to me she'll do to you.

She comes and she goes again. She comes and she
goes again.
It's all she needs to get to you, it's all she needs to get to you

