This is always how it started to you my dearly departed
it's time to get my coat I'm out of here, cause I've been drinking myself stupid while you sit around play cupid, you think I don't know what you did I don't need you anymore.

I'm so busy watching tv, engrossed in channel hopping there's over 50 channels yet nothing on.
Those keystone cops are always knocking, telling me you stole your shopping, I always said you're good for nothing, I don't need you anymore.

Shut up with your silence baby you know its been killing
me lately.

I don't need you anymore.

Last night I was a loser I wanted to abuse you, instead I threw myself around the room.

I'm always wondering what your doing and who the fuck you're screwing, you didn't think I knew, I don't need you anymore.

Shut up with your silence baby you know its been killing
me lately.

I don't need you anymore.

Your gonna, gonna get yours and I'm gonna, gonna take mine.

You been a real waste of my time I don't need you
