You see me coming like a nitron bomb as I explode this
where I belong, to all those fakers who just hit and run well Iâ€™m
coming on strong,
Iâ€™m coming right after you.

As you can see Iâ€™ve got something to say some come closer donâ€™t you run away
I got a feeling itâ€™s been burning so long, guess the motherfucker it just wonâ€™t go away.

I ainâ€™t ever had the chance to tell you ainâ€™t ever had
a chance to call,
ainâ€™t ever had the chance to tell you youâ€™re a fool.

PE told you donâ€™t believe the hype, the Clash said you better know your rights,

but nothing changes guess Grandmaster was right Iâ€™m standing so close, Iâ€™m standing too close to the edge.

Oh come on.

So watch me now as I take you and I deliver the same old song.

Just check the meaning and it wonâ€™t be long till your standing in line, your standing in line with me.

I ainâ€™t ever had the chance to tell you ainâ€™t ever had
a chance to call,
ainâ€™t ever had the chance to tell you youâ€™re a fool.

Youâ€™re a fool yeah, oh you are.

Youâ€™re a fool yeah you know you are.

Youâ€™re a fool yeah
