(Jerry Foster - Bill Rice)

Oh, the rain never falls in Denver
'Cause you make the sun shine all the time
Oh, the rain never falls in Denver
Since you came along and brought your love to this heart of mine.

One time in Chicago, Illinois
A pretty woman turned my head around
That city woman said she love this poor country boy
Any cloudy in Chicago and the rain came pouring down.

But the rain never falls in Denver
'Cause you make the sun shine all the time
Oh, the rain never falls in Denver
Since you came along and brought your love to this
heart of mine.

There's been some stormy weather in my life
I've done a lot of heaven in my time
I've had teardrops fall like rain off through the night And washed the sweet away with dreams that I've thought were mine.

But the rain never falls in Denver
'Cause you make the sun shine all the time
Oh, the rain never falls in Denver
heart of mine...
