(Jerry Foster - Bill Rice)

Your love is mine and I will hold it
With all my body soul and mind
Your love is mine and I will keep it
Until my life is lost to time.

Until my eyes are closed in darkness
Until the sun no longer shines
Until my ears can hear no laughter
Until I die your love is mine.

Your love is mine and I will hold it
With all my body soul and mind
Your love is mine and I will keep it
Until my life is lost to time.

The touch of you is like the morning
That brings the sunshine soft and warm
Your lips are sweet and taste of honey
And heaven waits inside your arms.

Your love is mine and I will hold it.
Your love is mine and I will hold it.
Your love is mine and I will hold it...
