Big brother is watchin you baby
Can you smile and say cheese
Big brother is watchin you baby
Say goodbye to your privacy

You know he's on the corner
And in the shopping malls
You better heed my warning
And you better watch out who you call

Big brother is watchin you baby
And he knows where you've been
Big brother is watchin you baby
Better try not to sin

Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to the new world order
As a member of the new world order, you get the new Patriot act, which entitles you, yes you, to be classified as A terrorist on the whim of one individual, with no charges
Being filed against you, and no right to an attorney.
But wait, there's more! If you act now, you also get The homeland security act, which entitles you to have all Of your communications monitored. With no regard to your privacy Or the constitution. Yes friend, this war has been brought to you
By little Hitler-that's right, the exalted ruler of the world who Wants us all to feel safe and cozy in his new world
order
So remember folks, big brother is watching out for you!

Big brother is watchin you baby
Can you smile and say cheese
Big brother is watchin you baby
Say goodbye to your privacy
You know he's on the corner
And in the shopping malls

You better heed my warning
And you better watch out who you call
