Once upon a time
When the world was all mine
Mom and Dad were near Calming every little fear
Monsters lived at night
Faces hidden in the light

I can't fight this feeling " oooh oooh
It sends my senses reeling
When I look in those eyes
I realize the truth behind the lies

See the days go by
Leave my youth with a sigh
Goin' where I'm led
Fairy tales running through my head
They've been all but lost

at such a cost

I can't fight this feeling " oooh oooh
It sends my senses reeling
When I look in those eyes
I realize the truth behind the lies

I can't fight this feeling " oooh oooh
It sends my senses reeling
When I look in those eyes
I realize the truth behind the lies
