Spoken:

A ho ho ho

It was the night before Christmas and everthing was real quiet.

So I thought Id take myself a little walk at Christmas Eve Night.

I was makin it on down the street, when to my surprise I saw this little bitty cat with big old tears in his eyes.

Now I could see he was standin in front of this music store and looked real brought down. I could hear what he was sayin he didnt know I was around...he say..

I want a rock n roll guitar

With a big bass string

I want a rock n roll guitar

So I can play the thing

I wanna be on t.v.

Like a rock n roll star

I want Santa Claus to bring me

A rock n roll guitar

hahaha..so-a I walked over to him-a cause I understand I, I thought Id cheer him up so I say, Look-a-here little man,

A-you dont want no rock n roll guitar, you want a six gun like the Lone Ranger has, so you can run around sayina hi ho Silver,

Kimo sabe, and all that cowboy jazz.

Or how would you like old Santa to bring you a little dump truck

so you could go around a-dumpin thing?

And he say...

Man, I dont want no dumptruck, I want somethin that swings

He say...

(sings)
I want a rock n roll guitar
With a big bass string
I want a rock n roll guitar
So I can play that thing

I wanna be on t.v.
Like a rock n roll star
I want Santa Claus to bring me
A rock n roll guitar

Spoken:
Ha, ha, wait a minute there, wait a minute, hold on, hold on I say I say, Hold on there little fellow, ah why dont you be like the little chicks and cats and wish for a space helmet or a rocketship or something wild like that? And you know what he say? He say...
Look here dad, I dont want no plane or no train or noth
