Well I don't know why the sky is blue, and the gums of a nigger well they're blue too

I don't pay attention to all that stuff, but I do know
niggers suck.

I don't know why the world ain't flat, and why the nose on the nigger is flat like that

I don't pay attention to all that stuff, but I do know
niggers suck.

----- (chorus) -----

I don't know, I don't want to know why a juggaboo's lips
are thick, but I sure know that a nigger ain't worth a lick
And I don't know, I don't want to know why a nigger
ain't got no pride, But I know them coons are never, no, they're never satisfied!

Well I don't know why the rain comes down, I don't know why a nigger is black or brown,

I don't pay attention to all that stuff, I do know niggers suck.

I don't know why a nigger stinks, Don't know why a juggaboo's hand's half pink

I don't pay attention to all that stuff, but I do know
niggers suck.

I don't know why night turns to day, And why a nigger won't work to earn his way

I don't pay attention to all that stuff, but I do know
niggers suck.

----- (chorus) -----

I don't know, I don't want to know why a juggaboo's lips
are thick, but I sure know that a nigger ain't worth a lick
And I don't know, I don't want to know why a nigger
ain't got no pride, But I know them coons are never, no,
they're never satisfied!

I don't know why a nigger is kin to an ape, I don't know why spooks want to intergrate

I don't pay attention to all that stuff but I do know niggers suck, I do know niggers suck, I do know niggers suck!
