I woke up this morning,
Better than I felt last night.
I heard a blue bird singing on a window sill outside.
I used to chase the moment
So scared to fall behind.
Now I get where I'm going
One day at a time.
And I'm feeling alright today.
Yeah
I'm feeling alright today
I got the sun shining on my face
Yeah
I'm feeling alright today
I don't worry about tomorrow.
Or the clouds of yesterday
Hang onto my rainbow;
That's where I like to stay
I'm feeling alright today
I'm feeling alright today yeah
I'm feeling alright today yeah
I got the sun shining on my face
Yeah I'm feeling alright today
Sometimes I get to thinking about the treasures in my life
I get the feeling like that blue bird on the window sill outside.
I'm feeling alright
I'm feeling alright today yeah
I'm feeling alright today year
Yeah
I got the sun shining on my face.
Yeah I'm feeling alright today
I'm feeling alright today
Yeah I'm feeling alright today
Yeah I am
I'm feeling alright
I'm feeling alright today
I'm feeling alright today
I'm feeling alright today
I'm feeling alright today.
