Wrapped up beneath
A blanket of stars
You and me
And the beat of our hearts
Both holding on
Holding on tight
I can still see
Reflecting in your eyes

A moon to remember
A night to surrender
A moment to treasure
Forever yours and mine
A flood of emotion
Cast over the ocean
A moon to remember
For the rest of our lives - yeah

Looking at you
Nothing has changed
What I felt back then, baby
I still feel today
You're all I want
You're all I'll ever need
I never will forget
The night you shared with me
