Theres a star shining bright tonight, on a house filled with candlelight
Theres a story being told that will never grow old
Waiting for Christmas to come.
On a blanket of snow outside, people stand and sing O
HOLY NIGHT
Glowing hearts keep them warm, they've been there all night long.
Waiting for Christmas to come.

For all the joy that it brings, for the bells that it rings,
For the sound of it's pipes and it's drums.
For all the peace, hope and love that is spread
amongst us.
Waiting for Christmas to come.

It's a time full of happiness,
A time to give, a time not forget.
Heavenly voices sing, children sleep on Angel wings.
Waiting for Christmas to come.

For all the joy that it brings, for the bells that it rings.
For the sound of it's pipes and it's drums.
For all the peace, hope and love that is spread
amongst us.
Waiting for Christmas to come.

Yeah for every boy and every girl, waiting for Christmas.
For everyone around the world, waiting for Christmas.
For the child in all of us waiting for Christmas to come.
Waiting for Christmas.
Waiting for Christmas.

Theres a star shining bright tonight, waiting for Christmas to come.
