You know I'd give up everything
To spend one more night in your arms
I'd give up everything
To listen closely to your heartbeat
But now your up and gone
It hurts so bad because I really miss you

I wish i'd done it differently maybe if i played the right cards you'd be here with me
i cant bear this broken heart ill take the time to see stop playing games, leave me wondering

if you could see me now
would you beg or would you cry?
would you look me in the eyes and say [x2]
look me in the eyes and say

if you could see me now
would you beg or would you cry?
would you look me in the eyes and say

how long has it been?
ive been missing you so much
did you miss me or was it better this way? [x2]
or was it better this way?

if you could see me now
would you beg or would you cry?
would you look me in the eyes and say
look me in the eyes and say

how long has it been?
ive been missing you so much
did you miss me or was it better this way? [x2]
or was it better this way?

or was it better this way?

how long has it been?

ive been missing you so much
did you miss me or was it better this way? [x2]
or was it better this way?
