Trust yourself,
Trust yourself to do the things that only you know best.
Trust yourself,
Trust yourself to do whats right and not be second-guessed.
Dont trust me to show you beauty
(When beauty may only turn to rust)
If you need somebody you can trust, trust yourself.

Trust yourself,
Trust yourself to know the way that will prove true in the end.
Trust yourself,
Trust yourself to find the path where there is no if and when.
(Dont trust me to show you the truth
When the truth may only be ashes and dust.)
If you want somebody you can trust, trust yourself.

Well, youre on your own, you always were.
In a land of wolves and thieves.
Dont put your hope in ungodly man
Or be a slave to what somebody else believes.

Trust yourself
And you wont be disappointed when people let you down.
Trust yourself
(look not for answers where no answers can be found.)
Dont trust me to show you love
(When my love may only be lust.)
If you want somebody you can trust, trust yourself.
