Oh-oh, I love her so
Even though we just met
Maybe I'm foolish, but maybe some things are meant
Was it her hair, dark as the night
And in the light, I'll make her mine

Oh-oh her diary of a lover
Yeah, I tell her I love her
Even though I share her
I'm still fortunate
Just getting to know her
Makes me remember things I forget

Oh-oh, she's such a girl
Oh-oh, yeah, she's living in my world

Every time I see her
She's gotta punch in
Her time's so limited
Cause she's still living with him

Oh-oh, she's such a girl
Oh-oh, yeah, she's living in my world

Well let me tell you, you guys
You all got it all so hard
You got to fight so hard
Just for some love
Too bad sucker, you're not in a band
It's so easy, it gets out of hand

But who really cares?
