Well we can't take it this week and her friends don't want another speech Hoping for a better day to hear what she's got to say All about that personality crisis you got it while it was hot, it was always hot Now frustration and heartache is what you got

Well now you're tryin' to do some, now you're tryin' to be some
You wanna be someone that cow wow wows But you think about the times you did, they took every ounce
And it sure got to be a change when you start to scream and shout

You got to contradict all those times You've been flyin' about, you've been butterflyin' all about that Personality crisis you got it while it was hot Well now frustration and heartache is what you got I talk about the personality

And you're a prima ballerina on a spring afternoon
You change on into the wolf man howlin' at the moon
You've got a personality crisis you got it while it was hot But now frustration and heartache is what you've got I talk about the personality, personality

Well you walk personality, talk personality, personality
