A preacher's daughter, her life's law and order
Her daddy holds her too tight
She can't escape, she can't make no mistakes
She's finished with school and now she's ready for life

When a good girl turns bad
She changes overnight
When a good girl turns bad
She's not concerned about what's wrong or right
She don't care

A good girl's turning bad
A good girl's turning bad

Her pride is showing, she's hurt and out to show 'em
This independence she's earned
She's not afraid of what they might say
Let them imagine whatever they like

When a good girl turns bad
She's out to play all the games
When a good girl turns bad
She'll take the credit but she don't want the blame
Who's to blame?

A good girl's turning bad
A good girl's turning bad
She's turning bad

A good girl's turning bad
A good girl's turning bad

A preacher's daughter, her life was law and order
Her daddy held her too tight
She ain't afraid of what they might think
They've got to know she's gonna run her own life

A good girl's turning bad
A good girl's turning bad
A good girl's turning bad
A good girl's turning bad
She's so bad
