(Johnny Van Zant/Erik Lundgren)

You're my first love, you're my last
And, I keep thinkin' back to the past
I remember all those rights we spent together
Loving one another just one day sort of forever.

It's never too late to say I love you
It's never too late to say you care
It's never too late to say I love you
It's never too late to say that you care.

I'll make you an offer that you can't refuse
'Cuz you know lady, you're too good for me to lose
I wish you'd take some time before you walk out the door
And just turn around girl and love this man some more.

It's never too late to say I love you
It's never too late to say you care
It's never too late to say I love you
It's never too late to say that you care...
