Cold steel, tucked out of sight,
Bullets speak louder than words.
No tears, fallin' tonight,
Oh this time she's gonna be heard.

She's done, closin' her eyes,
To a stranger that he's become.
And as he flashes into her mind,
She feels the trigger, she feels the trigger.

(Chorus)
She's out with a gun,
She's gonna get even this time.
It's over and done,
She's layin' it all on the line.

For so long, she was his life,
As sure as the moon and the stars.
But he turned the fire into ice,
Now there's a new face in his heart.

Love kills, as sure as it blinds,
But life swallows up the soul.
And once you cross right over that line,
It's gone forever, it's gone forever.

(Chorus)
She's out with a gun,
She's gonna get even this time.
It's over and done,
She's layin' it all on the line.
She's out with a gun.

(Bridge)

(Chorus)

(Repeat Chorus)
