Title: African Man

Gold Coast

Kenya

Belgian Congo

Tanyannika and Zululand

They took those people across the water to Southern States and [the Carribean.

Africa

Africa

African Man.

They had heart and soul and rhythm

rhythm spread all over the [land.

I said

who got the music? African Man.

Who got the soul now? African Man.

Who got the rhythm? African Man.

Somebody took those people by the hand.

You can't hide your head in the sand

Who was sold to the new-found land.

Your brothers and sisters

yours brothers and sisters

Your brothers and your sisters

African Man . . .

All they wanted was their freedom

freedom from the trader man

Africa

Africa

African Man.

Africa

Africa

African Man.

Africa

Africa

African Man.
Africa

Gold Coast
Kenya
Belgian Congo . . .
Your brothers and sisters
your brothers and sisters

Your brothers and your sisters
African Man .
