Cheap perfume, sweet perfume
The lonely smell that fills the room
Roses in your low rent tomb
A picture made of cheap perfume

Sad old rag, sad young hag
Clothes that hide the early sag
Sequins on a lame bag
The sparkle of a sad old rag

Drink up and be happy
Live just for today
Drown in cheap tequila
And flush yourself away
Flush yourself away

Worn out dreams, washed up schemes
Blueprint for a death machine
Scarred wrist on a movie queen
Picture of a worn out dream

Drink up and be happy
Live just for today
Drown in cheap tequila
And flush yourself away
Flush yourself away

So drink up and be happy
Live just for today
Drown in cheap tequila
And flush yourself away

So drink up and be happy
Live just for today
Drown in cheap tequila
And flush yourself away
Flush yourself away
Flush yourself away
