The bell has tolled, my baby caught that train and gone.

The bell has tolled, my baby caught that train and gone.

It was all my fault, I musta did somebody wrong.

Everything that happens, you know I am to blame.

Everything that happens, you know I am to blame.

Gonna find myself a doctor, perhaps my luck will change.

Oh, yeah.

Ah, my mama she told me, these days would surely come,

But, I wouldn't listen to her, had to have my fun.

The bell has tolled, my baby caught that train and gone.

It was all my fault, I musta done somebody wrong.

Oh, yeah.

The bell has tolled, my baby done caught that train and gone.

The bell has tolled, my baby caught that train and gone.

It was all my fault, I musta did somebody wrong.

Oh, I'll play the blues.
