I went out and got married
Thought I'd live a happy life
But before i could settle down
Another man had stole my wife

Sound the bell , Yes I feel so sad
Nobody knows , The troubles I had

If you see my woman
Won't you tell her from me
That she left me crying
And my heart 's in misery

Sound the bell , Yes I feel so sad
Nobody knows , The troubles I had
Solo

You may think I'm crazy
But i will never love again
I'm going back home to my mama
Cause she's my only friend

Sound the bell , Yes I feel so sad
Nobody knows , The troubles I had
Nobody knows , The troubles I had
Nobody knows , The troubles I had
