Well, that's all right, yes, that's all right
Two thousand miles but still that's all right
And that's all right, yes, that's all right
I'll see you in the morning if that's all right

What would you do if I wrote you a song
Would you give me some loving when I get home
Or would you be mad at me if I had a hard time
Getting a hold of you, I try all the time

And I'll bet that
You don't know anybody that could be so bad
But if you did, you'd be wondering where I'm at Well, I'll be home when tomorrow morning comes

What would you do if I sang you this song
The connection is bad but that's only the phone
'Cause when my words kiss your ear, I'll be right there
The message is long 'cause baby this is your song

I'll bet that
You don't know anybody that could be so bad
But if you did you'd be wondering where I'm at
Well, I'll be home when tomorrow morning

I'll bet that
You don't know anybody that could be so bad
But if you did you'd be wondering where I'm at
Well, I'll be home when tomorrow morning

And that's all right
'Cause I'll be home when tomorrow morning
And that's all right
'Cause I'll be home when tomorrow morning comes
