i think that what we have started is simply fantastic i can't get enough i call you one of my good habits every minute i'm awake i think of what we had that wouldn't be so bad if we made it last you help me fly, i feel superhuman i won't deny you are my best friend i feel no fear as long as you are here i love the time we spent don't let this go to your head but want to be wherever you go i want you to know

you're the one that makes me feel better whenever you are around my heart feels ten feet tall and it's all because because of you
you, you, you

when you laugh it lights up my whole face is just like magic what i feel don't want it to end cos i just got to have it usually romance's not my thing but that's not the case this time you've got a hold of me won't let go of me
you help me fly, i feel superhuman
i won't deny you are my best friend

you are so much fun, you you showed me the bright side, high side, high life my life is like a movie or better yet a video where no one is ever sad and the music's always good life's a big party here we go this never should of happened but i'm happy to lose control cos i think that what we have started is simply fantastic
