i think its meant to be that you are here with me i think its plain to tell that there is something here i think its right on time how you showed up tonight i think its safe to say that i want you baby so

(tonight) dont worry bout the time we'll have an open door (tonight) i wanna give you something no one's had before (tonight) want you to show me something that i never
see (tonight)
baby i cant leave your side so baby dont leave me on im so gone baby i just wanna take you home this must be love or something like it baby no, i dont think i wanna let you go this must be love or something like it

baby i feel what we got here if you feel it too it must be love (love) baby i think i believe if it's meant to be then its called love (love)

no need to question why somethings just happen fast some things are meant to be, some things are meant to last some moments only come ones and then ones their gone their gone forever oohh its a game to solve (tonight) dont worry bout the time we'll have an open door (tonight)i wanna give you something no one's had

(tonight) want you to show me something that i never
see (tonight)

love (love)

(tonight)dont worry bout the time we'll have an open
door
(tonight)i wanna give you something no one's had
(tonight) want you to show me something that i never
see (tonight)
