Peace of mind
just can't seem to find none all the changes that the first life takes you through you push and you shove trying hard to carve your place but the more you try the narrower becomes your space well now, my brother I've been down your path before the stress is beating you so hard, your body begins to ache now's the time to let it all go to find a place where peaceful bliss is near it's over here

Chorus:

but I must find me, yeah

Climb and climb reachin' close to truth's top prayin' to my God don't let my body drop I know he gives me strength to pay life's fee but the more I pay that bitch, the less my spirit feels free
well now, I'm searchin' in some place I've been before the foreign places scare me so I run and hide my face whether my dwelling time here is short or long I'll learn from my mistakes and I'll be strong so I can find me

so I can find me, yeah
so I can find me, yeah

(repeat)
