As I watch you walk I think about the other day
When I saw you lying next to me
And I wondered if you knew what I saw

You're saying all these things
That make me believe
You'll never leave me
You say these things that make me believe

When you're gone I think she such a perfect girl

So perfect, brown plastic eyes smoothly molded skin
Makes me think as I watch you

Sometimes I don't know why I am here in the first place Sometimes I don't know why I am with such a perfect girl
