Imma tell the whole world how you did it
the world how you did it
whole world how you did it im on to you tell the whole world how you did it

I've seen a lot of good lairs in my day but i never seen nothing like this no i met a lot of real players in my life congratulations you made it on the list you broke down the castle i built up around me hiding from the world and so somehow you found me now i see what it is
you are an illusionist
cant believe that i fell for it

I never though you would be so ungrateful before me into believing
you're like the greatest magician that i've ever seen got me looking the other way well i was blinding my everything you dont even know what to say well imma tell the whole world how you did it
tell the whole world how you did it

Should have been falling with my first instinct i would have stayed so far away from you but you deceived me had me believing that every lie you told was the truth i didn't see then it was all smoke and mirrors boy you had me fooled i was in the crowd cheering

and i was blinding my everything

Now that the cats out the bag you can stop with the act i dont buy into that no ive seen this show before and i know how it ends theres no need to pretend you might have had everyone else but you're not getting me im not that naive no now im in the clear
i dont need to be here
so i need to dissapear

i was blinding my everything

Well you're like the greatest magician that I've ever seen
tell the whole world how you did it

.....
Imma tell the whole world how you did it
