Verse 1:

Sometimes I need to paint, you can be my canvas
Sometimes I want to escape, even though it's selfish

I'm always coming over and I'm smoking you out
Because everything is better with a blunt in your mouth
As the clock strikes 12 I'll be freaking you out
Make us both forget what we were worried about

Traffic's jammed on the 405
I hop in the whip 'cause there's not much time
I'm gonna get to you

Chorus:

Fly through the streets like a hawk to the sky
Be in and out like a drive by
I'm going to take the canyon
Feels so good because I know that it's wrong
Get back home like nothing going on
I'm going to take the canyon

Verse 2:

Sometimes I bite my lip so I don't slip and say his name Cause in these magic moments I get homesick all the same

I'm always coming over and I'm smoking you out
Because everything is better with a blunt in your mouth
If I waited for you I'd just be waiting alone
So when the clock strikes two I'll be on my way home

Traffic's jammed on the 405
I hop in the whip 'cause there's not much time
Damn it, I'm gonna get to you

Chorus:

Fly through the streets like a hawk to the sky
Be in and out like a drive by
I'm going to take the canyon
Feels so good because I know that it's wrong
Get back home like nothing going on
I'm going to take the canyon

Said I'm on my way
He said he was born to be the other man
So I go to see him when I get the chance
Baby I'm on my way

Chorus:

Fly through the streets like a hawk to the sky
Be in and out like a drive by
I'm going to take the canyon
Feels so good because I know that it's wrong
Get back home like nothing going on
I'm going to take the canyon

Gonna do what I got to do
Gonna get to you
