Everybody dealt what they paid for tonight
Ain't just the one we can lie
Never feel the heat, the light
I hate to see em walk away
And home is where the bed lies, it ain't right
I'm wrestling myself, reaching up for help for a long long time

Pre-Chorus:

I'm getting over, try getting sober
Look around for something to hold onto
It's not love but we look lover
Who's gonna fight for me?

Chorus:

Will anybody fight for the fighter?
Does anybody know where to find her?
'Cause maybe I'm the still reminder
And no one's gonna rescue me
No, I'm not just sitting alone
I gotta learn to stand on my own
'Cause I'm the only one in the play
Who's gonna fight for me?

Oh oh, oh oh oh
Who's gonna fight for me?
Oh oh, oh oh oh
Who's gonna fight for me?
Oh oh, oh oh oh
Yeah, yeah

It's just me and my big dream
But what does it really mean
There's nobody around to see
I'm never letting somebody cry

Pre-Chorus:

What is the reason I keep on leaving?
That I will find something to hold onto
If it's not a lover then who'll be my cover?
Who's gonna fight for me?

Chorus:

Will anybody fight for the fighter?
Does anybody know where to find her?
'Cause maybe I'm the still reminder
And no one's gonna rescue me
No, I'm not just sitting alone
I gotta learn to stand on my own
'Cause I'm the only one in the play
Who's gonna fight for me?

Who's getting tired within
Pushing me over my limb
Sometimes I want it, but even meant to be in it
But baby, I'm not a quitter
So I'ma stand with my chin up
Cause at the end of the day
You know that I'm gonna win it yeah.

[Pre-Chorus:]

[Chorus:]

Who's gonna fight for me?
Who's gonna fight for me?
