Hello [female]
Whats up [male]
Can i see you tonight? [female]
Sure [male]

Shes about 5'9" about 30
She likes to smile like shes flirty flirty
Shes on my mind when im feeling lonely
Too bad shes rolling wit my homie
When were alone she likes to fool around and tease me
Tellin me how she can please me
You got me burning just like fire
Could this thing get any higher?

[bridge]
Was afraid, the situation
She saw me and i saw her
But thats my homies girl
And i know that its wrong
We looked we touched we kissed
Dont no oh what is this?
I know that thats my dawg
My hommie we be crew but

[chorus]
I looked at her and i knew we was wrong
She looked at me we both knew we was wrong
But then the rythim starting to flow
And now were creepin on the low
When shes not with him shes here with me
I know its wrong cuz hes my hommie
Give me the night that sent me the key
Shes my hommies girl...

Thats the was uh huh uh huh she likes it...

Its getting late its about 12:30
She calls me up says shes feeling lonely
That i should swing by and i should hurry
But when i get there its another story

She greets me at the door lookin all sexy
Touchin me like she wanna do me
I gave it to her and the lovin was strong
But i knew it was wrong..she was my hommies girl..

[bridge]

[chorus]

She be cheatin,desevin,creaping
Said we keep it tight while we was freakin
She was acting all...kinda shady
All this time she was still your lady
I must confess with you, your my only hommie
I lay the pipe when your girl was feelin lonely
Some of these girls check around and start for check sometimes they hit and run and cause a car wreck

[chorus]

Yo bridget theres something i want to get off of me chest
Boa but i got britney
Oh i saw some girl was being a whore about that
And thats cool
Fredrum for life
See ya

All it took was one look.
